

New Haven Promise College Transfer Form

New Haven Promise covers full tuition (for up to four years) for any New Haven resident that graduates from a New Haven public school and attends a Connecticut in-state public two- or four-year college or university or New Haven Promise will contribute an annual maximum scholarship of $2,500 toward the total cost of education to any Connecticut in-state not-for-profit college or university for any New Haven resident that graduates from a New Haven public school.

At two-year institutions, students are eligible for two years of scholarships for up to three years after graduation from high school, and at four-year institutions, for four years of scholarships for up to five years after graduation from high school. In both cases enrollment must be full-time. Students moving from two- to four-year institutions are eligible for up to four years of scholarships.

*(New Haven Promise will not cover additional credits due to dropped or failed classes or those required for a minor or a second major. The Promise counts all credits for which they have paid toward the credit limit indicated above.)
